

Aryan Dhingra

Aryandhingra30@gmail.com | 0451706244 | Melbourne, Vic, 3000

Key skills

- Excellent customer service and communication skills. - Strong sales and merchandising abilities. - Proficient in POS systems and inventory management. - Team player with the ability to work in a fast-paced environment. - Fluent in English; basic knowledge of French

Education

Bachelor's of Cybersecurity from Rmit University

Graduate in 2027

Summary

Dedicated and enthusiastic retail professional seeking to leverage my experience at Universal Studio Street style clothing store along with my student visa status in Australia, to contribute effectively to your team.

Career history

Sales Associate at Universal Studio Retail Store

July 2023 – Till date

- Provided excellent customer service, assisting customers with their purchases, and ensuring a positive shopping experience. - Maintained knowledge of current street style clothing trends to offer informed recommendations to customers.
- Managed inventory, restocked shelves, and ensured the store was organized and visually appealing.
- Processed sales transactions efficiently using POS systems, handling cash and card payments.
- Assisted in visual merchandising and window displays to attract customers and promote new arrivals.
- Received commendations from management for achieving high sales targets and exceptional customer feedback.

Interests

Fashion trends, retail management, and customer service excellence.

Availability

Part-time during academic terms, usually available all day of the week, full-time during university breaks.

Right to Work in Australia

Subclass 500, student visa, 48h of work allowed per week.

References

Available upon request